

SALLY HENSHALL

Sally has been working at Grove Lea Primary since September 2006. The school was inspected in September 2017 and was graded Outstanding in all areas. In her role as headteacher she particularly enjoys developing teachers and takes great pride when teachers are successfully promoted to further their career. Sally also enjoys working with fellow headteachers and more recently acting as a mentor to newly qualified headteachers.

MICHAEL WALKER

Michael is the Headteacher of Ackworth Howard School, prior to this he was the Headteacher of a larger than average primary school in Doncaster working as part of a multi academy trust. He has been involved in school to school support since the early years of his career from being a lead teacher, and an SLE.

Michael is passionate about system leadership and has an enabling approach to staff development.

He has experience of supporting schools in a variety of contexts, which have included larger than average (700+) pupils, 90% ethnic minority, Inadequate schools and rural schools moving from Good to Outstanding. Michael now enjoys the opportunity to work with colleagues across a variety of settings as an LLE.
